We're pleased that you're considering using our services and have detailed below our usage terms which you need to read, understand and agree to as part of registering and using our service. These terms are legally binding so please take time to review them carefully. If you do not agree to these terms you may not use our services.

These terms were announced on 1 December 2020 and apply from 1 January 2020. Please note, it is expected these terms will be updated from time to time. It is a condition of these terms that you also agree to be bound by any updated terms.

Depending upon what area of our website you access or service you use, different terms will apply to you. There are three sets of terms. Our Investor Centre terms (which are for security holders and their representatives), our Advisor Centre terms (which are for anyone security holders and their representatives give read-only access to), and our Issuer Centre terms (which are for representatives of entities to view, record and manage the registers of securities and instruments issued by the entities). Collectively, these terms are our Terms of Use.

When we say you or your, we mean both you and any entity or firm you're authorised to represent. When we say Registry Direct, we, our or us, we're talking about Registry Direct Pty Limited (ABN 35 160 181 840). When we say our website, system, platform, or service, we mean all the services offered by us.

ISSUER CENTRE TERMS

About the Issuer Centre

The Issuer Centre allows authorised parties to view, maintain and manage a register of holders of securities and other instruments issued by an entity recorded on our system (our Client).

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 You and Registry Direct

When we say you or your, we mean both you and any Client you represent under this Agreement. When we say we, our or us, we’re talking about Registry Direct Pty Limited (ABN 35 160 181 840). When we say our website, system, platform, or service, we mean all the services offered by us.

1.2 Capitalised words

Capitalised words in these Terms are defined in clause 26.

2. SERVICES

2.1 Right to use the Services

(a) By using our Services, you agree and warrant that:

- (i) you have read, understood and agreed to these Terms;
- (ii) you have the authority to act on behalf of the Client; and
- (iii) that you will use the Services in accordance with these Terms.

If you do not agree to these Terms, you may not use the Services and must notify us immediately.

- (b) Subject to your compliance with these Terms, we grant you the non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, non-transferable and limited right to access and use the Services from time to time during the Term.

2.2 Service Availability

There may be occasions where the Services are unavailable, including due to reasons outside of our control. We will use reasonable endeavours to notify you in advance of any planned outages and will endeavour to remedy any unplanned outages as soon as possible.

2.3 Your use of the Services

By agreeing to these Terms, you acknowledge and agree that we may monitor or suspend your use of the Services where such use is considered fraudulent or outside of the intended application of the Services, causes significant congestion, disruption or otherwise adversely affects the performance or delivery of the Services or adversely affects any person's use of, or access to, the Services.

3. PRICING OF THE PLATFORM AND SERVICES

3.1 Primary Contact

Each Client has a Primary Contact. The Primary Contact is the person named as the primary contact for that Client. If you are the Primary Contact, you agree to subscribe for the Services on behalf of the Client and assume responsibility for fully controlling how the subscription is managed, who can access the Services, and for paying the Fees for the Services. If you do not agree, you may not be the Primary Contact. If no person agrees to be the Primary Contact for a Client, then the use of the Services for the Client will be terminated immediately.

3.2 Fees

The Fees we charge depend upon the plan you have subscribed for (and as you are deemed to have applied for from time to time) and your use of our Services. The plans we offer and the rates we charge for our plans are available on our Website. The terms of the plans form part of these Terms.

Please note, the plans we offer and/or the rates we charge may change from time to time. We will give at least 30 days' notice prior making any changes. Where a change is made it will apply to the Client. If the change is not acceptable to the Client, their only recourse is to terminate their subscription.

Plans and rates (other than ASIC agent fees) cannot be downgraded.

4. PAYMENT

4.1 Method of payment

- (a) We will issue an invoice to you around the end of each Month for the relevant Fees (Invoice). No pro-rata adjustments to the rates will be made for periods of less than one month. An Invoice must be paid as set out on the invoice and in any event within 14 days of the date of the Invoice. All amounts paid to us are non-refundable, non-cancelable and non-creditable. An Invoice may be issued in accordance with the process set out in clause 18.

Fees, including any quoted disbursement fees, may be payable in advance of the provision of the Services as determined by Registry Direct in its absolute discretion.

- (b) Where we have been provided with credit card or direct debit details, the Primary Contact will be deemed to have authorised us to debit from the credit card or bank account (as applicable), the outstanding amount owed under any Invoice during the Term.

4.2 Interest on late payment

We may charge the Client interest on all outstanding amounts due and payable under these Terms at an annualised rate of 2% above the Reserve Bank of Australia Cash Rate Target, compounded daily, and an additional amount for any expenses incurred by us in collecting any overdue amounts (including the cost of engaging a debt recovery agent or a lawyer).

4.3 Termination on late payment

In addition to any other rights we may have under these Terms, if the Client does not pay the Fees owed to us in accordance with these Terms, we may, at our sole discretion, either:

- (a) terminate the Agreement by giving 14 days' written Notice to the Primary Contact; or
- (b) following two business days prior notice, suspend the provision of the Services for as long as any Fees remain outstanding, without being responsible or liable during that period for the Services, including maintaining the integrity of the Register.

4.4 GST

The parties agree that:

- (a) all Fees are exclusive of GST; and
- (b) if the whole or any part of any payment under or in connection with these Terms is the consideration for a taxable supply for which the payee is liable to GST, the payer must pay to the payee an additional amount equal to the amount referable to GST, either concurrently with that payment or as otherwise agreed in writing.

Unless the expressly provided otherwise in these Terms, all terms used in this clause 4.4 have the same meaning as in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth).

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR CLIENT DATA

5.1 General

You must ensure that your use of the Services and handling of Client Data is at all times compliant with all applicable Laws. Each time you provide Client Data to us (including by uploading that data to the Platform), you represent and warrant that:

- (a) you have obtained all necessary rights, releases and permissions to provide the Client Data to us and to grant the rights under these Terms in respect of the Client Data; and
- (b) the Client Data and its transfer to and use by us, as authorised by you under these Terms, do not violate any Laws (including without limitation those relating to export control and electronic communications) or rights of any third party, including without limitation any Intellectual Property Rights, rights of privacy or rights of publicity, and any use, collection and disclosure authorised by the Client under these Terms is not inconsistent with the terms of any privacy policies or privacy laws applicable to the Client Data.

5.2 Client Permissions

By using our Services, you grant permission to us to host, back-up and otherwise deal with Client Data in accordance with these Terms.

5.3 Accuracy of information and Services

You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) we have no obligation to verify any of the Client Data provided to us in connection with the Services;
- (b) the accuracy, completeness and quality of the Services will be dependent on the accuracy, completeness and quality of the Client Data provided; and
- (c) we will not be liable for any failure of the Services which result in connection with any inaccurate or incomplete Client Data provided to us.

6. SECURITY & DATA SERVICES

6.1 Use of third party service providers

In providing the Services, we may appoint and use third party service providers to assist us in carrying out our obligations under these Terms (for example, hosting and cloud server providers). In engaging such third party service providers, we will ensure that such service providers comply with the Privacy Policy (as amended from time to time) and the confidentiality provisions set out in clause 10 of these Terms.

6.2 Security

The use of the Services necessarily involves transmission of Client Data over networks that are not owned, operated or controlled us. Whilst we will take all reasonable precautions to implement security procedures to help protect Client Data from security attacks, we disclaim all responsibility for any Client Data that is lost, altered, intercepted or stored across such networks. We cannot and do not guarantee that our security procedures will be error-free, or that transmissions of Client Data will be secure or that unauthorised third parties will not be able to defeat our security measures or those of our third party service providers.

6.3 Data Storage

We may retain Client Data for at least seven years following termination of the Agreement or such time frame as required by law. Client Data retained by Registry Direct is stored in Australia only.

6.4 Use of third-party applications

If you enable third-party applications for use in conjunction with the Services, you acknowledge that we may allow the providers of those third-party applications to access Client Data as required for the interoperation of such third-party applications with the Services. We shall not be responsible for any disclosure, modification or deletion of Client Data resulting from any such access by third-party application providers.

7. AUTHORISED SIGNATORIES

7.1 Credentials

You must ensure that you keep your User Details strictly confidential and not share such information with any unauthorised person. User Details are granted to individual, named persons nominated by an Authorised Signatory with the relevant privileges and may not be shared. The Primary Contact and the Client are responsible for any and all actions taken on the Account.

7.2 Authorised Signatories

You acknowledge that Authorised Signatories are authorised to give directions and instructions to us on behalf of the Client for the purposes of these Terms and to sign on behalf of a Client, all notices, communications, instructions, directions confirmations and other documents required by or contemplated under these Terms.

7.3 Registry Direct entitled to rely

We are entitled to rely on the authenticity of the Notices, signatures or instructions given, or purported to be given, by an Authorised Signatory (including by email or electronically via the Platform) and we will not be liable for any claim, damage, cost, expense, loss liability or demand arising from that reliance.

7.4 Date variation takes effect

Any variation to the list of Authorised Signatories in the Account takes effect on the date on which the list of Authorised Signatories is updated.

8. PAYMENTS ON BEHALF OF THE CLIENT

8.1 Receipt of money

- a) Where the Client and Registry Direct agree in writing that Registry Direct is to hold money paid by:
- (i) the Client on trust for the Client's security holders (or such other third party agreed between Registry Direct and the Client in writing) (for example, dividend payments); and/or
 - (ii) the Client's security holders on trust for the Client pending the issue of securities by the Client to the security holder (for example, application moneys for the issue of securities or under a share purchase plan);

(together, Trust Funds), Registry Direct agrees to hold such Trust Funds as bare trustee for the Client in accordance with this clause 8.

- b) The Client acknowledges that Registry Direct will hold Trust Funds in a bank account designated as being held on trust for the Client (Trust Account) and will be entitled to all interest earned in respect of the Trust Account from time to time and that such interest does not constitute any payment toward Fees payable by the Client.
- c) The Client must ensure that sufficient cleared funds are available in the Trust Account to allow Registry Direct to make the payments described in clause 8.2. Where sufficient funds are not available, Registry Direct will not make the required payments. The Client acknowledges that Registry Direct will not be liable for any consequences the Client may suffer due to insufficient funds in the Trust Account.

8.2 Payments relating to Securities

- (a) Other than in respect of any interest earned on the Trust Accounts in accordance with clause 8.1 (b), Registry Direct may only make payments from the Trust Account in accordance with a written notice (which may be by email or communicated electronically through the Issuer Centre) provided by an Authorised Signatory which either i) specifies the amount, date and bank account into which each payment is to be made and a description of the purpose of each payment or ii) relies upon amounts calculated by the platform (for example amounts payable as a result of a dividend). Where the amounts have been calculated by the Platform, the client acknowledges the amounts are calculated and the payees bank accounts determined on a best endeavours basis only, and that Registry Direct will not be liable for any consequences the Client may suffer arising from any error or omission.
- (b) Within 2 Business Days after receipt of a notice in accordance with clause 8.2 (a), and subject to clause 8.1 (c), Registry Direct will make electronic funds transfer payments from the Trust Account in accordance with the directions specified in the notice.
- (c) Where Trust Funds are not transferred in accordance with clause 8.1 (a) for any reason, Registry Direct will continue to hold such Trust Funds until the Trust Funds are transferred in accordance with a valid notice given under clause 8.2 (a).

8.3 Client's acknowledgement

The Client acknowledges and agrees that Registry Direct's compliance with this clause 8 is dependent on the Client's compliance with its obligations under this agreement and that Registry Direct relies solely on the Client's directions when handling any payments under this clause 8. The Client acknowledges that it is the Client's sole responsibility to ensure that any directions given by the Client in respect of Trust Funds are in accordance with the Client's statutory obligations or any other obligations whatsoever arising.

9. TERMINATION

9.1 Termination for convenience

The Primary Contact may terminate this Agreement, without cause, at any time by providing us with written Notice. We may terminate these Terms, without cause, at any time by giving at least 30 days' written Notice to you.

9.2 Termination for cause

- (a) In addition to any other terms of these Terms giving a right of termination, we may terminate these Terms with immediate effect and without further notice to you if:
 - (i) you or any representative of the Client breach a material provision of these Terms and fail to remedy that breach within 14 days after receiving written Notice specifying the breach;

- (ii) you or any representative of the Client breach a provision of these Terms that is not capable of being remedied; or
 - (iii) the Client is or becomes Insolvent.
- (b) If we terminate these Terms in accordance with clause 9.1 or 9.2(a), you will be able to export the Client Data contained in the Register for a period of three months unless:
- (i) you or a representative of the Client has breached a material provision of these Terms (including failure to pay your Fees);
 - (ii) doing so would cause us legal liability or compromise our ability to provide the Services and access to the Platform to other clients; or
 - (iii) we are prohibited from doing so by law.

9.3 Obligations surviving Termination

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms, the Client will remain liable for any accrued charges and amounts occurred by us, whether or not these amounts were due for payment prior to termination.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY

10.1 Confidential Information

Each party:

- (a) agrees that it will take all reasonable steps to keep and treat as confidential all Confidential Information disclosed to a party (Receiving Party) by the other party (Disclosing Party) and the Receiving Party acknowledges the Confidential Information is passed to and received by it in the strictest confidence;
- (b) must use the Confidential Information only for the purposes set out in these Terms;
- (c) must not disclose the Confidential Information to any person except as permitted by these Terms;
- (d) must use reasonable endeavours to ensure that any person who has access to Confidential Information does not make any unauthorised use, modification, reproduction or disclosure of that information and acknowledges and agrees that it remains responsible for that person such that any breach of these Terms by this person will be treated as a breach by the Receiving Party;
- (e) must notify the Disclosing Party as soon as practicable after it becomes aware of a breach by it or its representatives of its obligations under this clause 10; and
- (f) must co-operate with the Disclosing Party in any reasonable action which it may take to protect the confidentiality of its Confidential Information.

10.2 Permitted Disclosures

The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information otherwise than in relation to the access to the Platform and provision of Services in accordance with these Terms:

- (a) on a need to know basis to any of its representatives or agents (including legal advisers) for the purposes set out in these Terms if the Receiving Party ensures that the representative or agent is made fully aware of the nature and extent of the Confidential Information and the representative or agent agrees to be bound and abide by the applicable terms of these Terms;
- (b) where required by Law, if the Receiving Party provides notice to the Disclosing Party prior to any disclosure to provide the Disclosing Party with the opportunity to address any potential disclosure of its Confidential Information (to the extent permitted under any applicable Law); or
- (c) with the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.

10.3 Return of Confidential Information

At any time at the reasonable request of the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party must:

- (a) deliver to the Disclosing Party, or with the Disclosing Party's prior written consent, destroy or delete all documents and media in which any Confidential Information is recorded or from which it may be reproduced (including any copies thereof) and which are in the possession, power, custody or control of the Receiving Party or its representative except to the extent that the Receiving Party is entitled to retain Confidential Information for internal audit and compliance purposes in accordance with its bona fide record keeping policies including references in board papers, minutes and information contained in back up files; and
- (b) certify in writing to the Disclosing Party by an authorised officer, that to the best of its knowledge and after making enquires, there is no longer any Confidential Information in the possession, power, custody or control of the Receiving Party or any representative of the Receiving Party other than Confidential Information retained in accordance with clause 10.3(a).

11. INDEMNITY AND LIABILITY

11.1 Indemnity

By agreeing to these Terms, you and the Client agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Registry Direct from and against any loss, cost, expense, liability or damage, including legal costs, (collectively, Loss) for which we become, or may become, liable arising from or relating to your, the Client, a User's or any unauthorised party's use of the Services or the Client Data, including but not limited to any claim brought by a third party alleging that Client Data, or any use of the Services by you, a User, an unauthorised party or a Client in breach of these Terms, infringes or misappropriates the rights or Intellectual Property Rights of a third party or violates applicable Laws, except to the extent that any Loss is caused by our fraudulent conduct or wilful misconduct. You acknowledge and agree that we do not need to incur expenses or make payment before enforcing our right of indemnity under these Terms.

11.2 Limitation of liability

- (a) Despite any other provision of these Terms (excluding any loss that a Client suffers as a result of our fraudulent conduct or wilful misconduct), to the maximum extent permitted by law, we exclude all liability and responsibility to you or any Client (or any other person) in contract, tort (including negligence), or otherwise, for any loss (including loss of Client Data, profits and savings) or damage resulting, directly or indirectly, from the use of, or reliance on, the Services.
- (b) If you or a Client suffers loss or damage arising as a direct result of our negligence or failure to comply with these Terms, our liability will be limited, at our option, to supplying access to the Services again or paying for the cost of having the Services supplied again, and in any case, will not exceed the amount of Fees paid or payable to Registry Direct under these Terms during the previous year immediately prior to the event giving rise to the liability (or pro-rata where the agreement has been in place for less than a year).
- (c) Unless otherwise required by Law, if you are not satisfied with the Services, your sole and exclusive remedy is to terminate this Agreement.
- (d) The limitation of liability described in this clause 11.2 will not apply to any loss that a Client suffers as a result of our fraudulent or wilful misconduct or our being in breach of this Agreement.
- (e) You agree to release us from all claims arising in connection with the Services to the extent that our liability in respect of such claims would exceed our liability as determined under clause 11.2(b).
